REFLECTION RESOURCE

TOPIC: EPHESIANS 2:1-10

David O'Connor

REFLECTIONS / QUESTIONS

Read Ephesians 2:1-10 // Revisit the message at www.newhope.family/audio

1. (v1-5) What does Paul say about who you once were? And who you are now?
2. In what ways can you identify with where Paul says we've come from?
3. How has Jesus made you alive, raised and seated with Him?
4. Reflecting on the past 24 hours, can you see opportunities and good works that God prepared for you to walk in?
5. What are the differences between recognising opportunities that God has already prepared vs. praying for God to give you opportunities?
6. What does it mean to be saved by grace through faith?

NOTES

NEXT STEPS

Meditate on the powerful truths of your identity in Christ - you're loved, saved, made alive, raised and seated with Christ.

Confess where you're stuck in sin and receive grace from God to be who He has called you to be.

Pray that God will reveal the good works and opportunities He has prepared for you to walk in.
